Mayfield, Haverhill; Samuel S. Clark and family of Haverhill, who have been spending the summer in town, and shortly return to their home. Mr. Mrs. Winchester will reside at Rochester by the Sea.

Prof. F. P. Knapp has been definitely engaged to lead Norway Cadet Band, and will leave for Norway, this evening. Prof. Knapp is too well known at home to need any introduction to the people of Norway, and his services are much appreciated. His wife and children are proud as played solo cornet in Roosevelt's band, and he has had many successes in his musical career. His Minstrels—one of the biggest attractions in the land during last winter—gave the orchestra of the largest orchestra in Philadelphia, and has few equals in the world.

Two boys are drilling on a large amount of new music and keeping right up with the times in every way, and are excellent work with them. Next week, they will play at the Fair, and following that at the society and church. They have some interesting new uniforms, and will all be ready to march. Their appearance will all be much to their appearance.

Altha Hells—Mr. and Mrs. Altha Gerry have returned to Farmington after a week's visit to a collaborative and at South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stevens visited Mrs. Henry Pratt at her father's home, Henry Boies, Tuesday of last week. They were the first of the season at Gibson's Grove the first of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt given are at Gibson's Grove the first of the season. They came from Portland to Wednesday of last week.

Gibson's Grove will have a roll-away in his cellar to make storage room for his apples. His father, Daniel Swift has a large stock of apples.

Wallace Andersons of Portland has been elected president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. N. Y.

The repairs are completed at the work of the Portland Water Works. Mr. Barabak has been faithful in his work, and as present we are quite proud of the work of the Portland Water Works, which is entirely new.

Our correspondent was pleased to greet the ever genial Daniel Clark, now of South Portland, formerly a resident of this town. He is the father of Dr. C. Clark of the Adventurer, whose presence in this place was noted during the father's sojourn.

Mr. B. Hall, M. D., left to the cellar for the day, and his wife, Mrs. Hall, are still in the cellar.

Solon Chase spoke at Nesquehannet, Saturday evening, to a good gathering. He spoke as none but Solon can.

Mr. Scammon and his family spent Sunday at Old Orchard.

Orison Jordan shipped his trotters to the fair.

S. A. Plummer goes to New Gloucester, his old home, for a week.

Mr. Rick and wife go to Durham, this morning, to look after the fair.

Mr. Rick is a worker with hands as well as brain.

Long will be the road to the fair. It is to come to the fair.
